

The first in a series of 13 free public events on Saturday September 14
outside front entrance of Canton, New York Walmart

Join us in an officially sanctioned all ages free creative & skills training event provided by Sustainable Community Development Hub with participation awards provided by Canton Walmart & other donors.

"Garment Mending & Rhyme Bending"

Shadow Self
Cypher Series
International
Poetics
Invitational
Group Poem,
Freestyle, Slam,
Humor, Beatbox
& Rythmic
Vocalization
Co-Creative
Garment
Mending &
Day of Creative Expression, Solidarity & Healing

Possibly dawn to dusk, definitely 3:30pm to 7pm

Why? Because
friendship & creativity
knows no limits
and cannot be contained by corporate, religious,
political, academic,
judicial, cultural,
physical or temporal boundaries.

Greg Willson, F.E. of SCD Hub will conduct affairs supporting the group poem via rythm, readings & live stream at tinyfood.org and by assisting with garment mending projects.

Poet Claudia Mbina Mwende
of Mamawatoto Eco School will be participating & mentoring via live stream from Nairobi , Kenya

media inquiry, creative mentoring or collaboration, contact:
mwendembinda@yahoo.co.uk
and/or ecocommunity@protonmail.com

Shadow Self Cypher Series is not funded by anyone other than the people participating. Assistance from community orgs: Mamawatoto Womens Self Help Group, Art Kiosk, Bridgetek in Kenya, TinyFood & Church of the Flying Subgenius Spaghetti Monster